Our world is becoming more interconnected and inter-dependent. Advances in communications are transforming our lives and relationships. The simplest decision on the other side of the world today can have huge repercussions for us tomorrow. Ecological disasters know no borders.

As we understand these realities better, we can exercise our responsibilities as world citizens to make a brighter future.

Provide opportunities to learn about peoples and cultures of the world in order to promote a peaceful future.

GLC monthly programs feature knowledgeable presenters, every third Sunday, often with international cuisine.
